NCCA BUSINESS MEETING

The annual NCCA business meeting was held September 9, 1983, at 9:30 a.m. at the Holiday Inn Carowinds outside Charlotte, before the third round of the North Carolina State Championship tournament. President Robert Singletary welcomed the 77 persons in attendance. In his opening remarks he noted that the NCCA had grown to 410 members and that the 1983 LPO and the 1983 Scholastics were the largest tournaments in state history.

The following persons were awarded certificates of commendation for service to the NCCA in the past year: Al Lipkin, Patsy Spurrier, Leland Fuerstman, Steven Greenlee, Allen Cooley, Mark Becker, Louis Cobb, Stephane Simpson, Donald Miller, David O'Bryant, and Joe Stegall.

President Singletary announced that the NCCA had finally achieved not-for-profit status after a lengthy and involved legal process. Some discussion centered on whether the legal fees ($500) were excessive. It was noted that filing for not-for-profit status is not a simple procedure and that the fees were not inconsistent with prevailing rates.

The Secretary/Treasurer's report was read: the treasury contained approximately $1000, down $350 from the previous meeting. Membership had increased by 18% to 410.

Gambit editor Charles Alden noted that more materials, particularly game scores or positions from games by members, would be welcome and necessary submissions. Some discussion centered on whether the Gambit was a useful or worthwhile part of the NCCA. Comments from the audience pointed out that the Gambit is a constitutional requirement of the NCCA and the only record and archive of chess history of the state. Greg Samsa observed that the amount of labor involved simply to produce and address the journal was considerable. A non-binding straw poll was taken to sense if the opinion of the audience was that the editor should receive monetary compensation even if an increase in dues was required. The vote was 53 to 6 in favor of the idea in principle; the matter was referred to the Executive Committee for study. Editor Alden then commented that he would prefer to serve on a voluntary basis in any event; he also noted that the typography of the Gambit compared favorably with that of the newsletter of the North Carolina Society for Technical Communications, which charges a membership fee ten times the NCCA dues.

A letter from David O'Bryant concerning the tournament clearinghouse was summarized. President Singletary noted the matter was out of the jurisdiction of the NCCA but agreed to draft a letter requesting that North and South Carolina be combined into one clearinghouse under Marion Mahaffey.

A motion by Robert Singletary to eliminate the junior portion of the Grand Prix was defeated by a vote of 43 to 8. The meeting was adjourned at 10:20 a.m.

TENTH LPO DRAWS RECORD TURNOUT

Lured by a record $10,000 prize fund, 341 players from eleven states participated in the Tenth Annual Lawrence Pfefferkorn Open held July 30 and 31 at the Hilton Inn in Winston-Salem. A third record was set when the air conditioning failed in the main playing room and the temperature soared to 106. Nonetheless, six players kept their cool and posted perfect scores, led by Boris Belopolsky of Allston, MA, who captured the $1000 first prize in the Open section. He was followed by Richard Delaune (VA), Curt Jones (TN) and Gregory Acholonu (MD) who tied for second with 4½.

John Brooks of Siler City and Gary Weeks from Arkansas posted 5-0 scores to top the Amateur section, ahead of Patrick Radcliff of West Virginia with 4½. In the Novice section three players scored five wins: Arlee Vincent (VA), Tomasz Kosinski (NY), and Alexander Keyes (Durham), with Vincent taking first prize and Kosinski and Keyes splitting the unrated prize.

The tournament was organized for the tenth year in a row by Dr. Al Lipkin, with assistance from his daughter, Lori. The tournament was capably directed by Harry Sabine, Thad Rogers, John White, and Robert Singletary. Below are listed all the prizewinners, and the complete crosstables are presented on the next six pages.
